

PAPER NY FILMS RELEASES “NANCY GREENE: ON THE EDGE” ON DVD

VANCOUVER. November 30, 2009 – Just in time for the Vancouver 2010 Winter Olympic Games, Paperny Films is pleased to announce the DVD release Nancy Greene: On the Edge.

Nancy Greene: On the Edge tells the story of Canada’s most renowned female skier. For Nancy Greene, doing the best you can meant winning the most world cup ski races by any Canadian ever. At the 1968 Winter Olympics in the French resort of Grenoble, doing the best you can meant winning gold and silver medals. And with that success, Nancy Greene became a household name across Canada and throughout the skiing world. Follow the story of this determined woman from her early years on skis in Rossland, BC to her rise as an Olympic and World champion. Never in Canadian history has there been such an inspiring woman who has done more for the world of skiing than Nancy Greene. And for many Canadian champions who have followed Nancy down those icy slopes, she remains their role model and inspiration. (1996, 44 minutes)

Nancy Greene: On the Edge is now available on DVD at <http://papernyfilms.com/store>.
